

CONSIGNOR AGREEMENT

Thank you for consigning with J Smith Boutique! When you consign with us, we'll give you a receipt for your items. By signing below, you are agreeing to the terms and confirming that the items you've brought are yours and you have right to sell them. We promise to do our very best to receive the highest dollar amount possible for your items.

Terms of our agreement

1. Your items are consigned for 90 days. It is YOUR responsibility to notify J Smith at the end of your consignment cycle if you wish to pick up unsold items. Your consignment cycle is noted on your Consignment Receipt. After 90 days, unclaimed items become property of J Smith.
2. Consignors receive 40% of the final selling price. The final selling price may vary from the estimated selling price due to sales promotions, length of time in store, type of item, and general competitive retail market. We reserve the right to mark down any items at any time.
3. If any imperfections are found on your items during pricing, we will contact you and hold the items for 5 days. After that time, they will be donated.
4. Price guarantees for exclusive items or variations of client percentages must be discussed by appointment and documented on your account.
5. Payout checks for $50.00 or more will only be issued between the 15th and the 20th of each month. You must come into the store to pick up your check. Upon request, we will mail checks to consignors living out of town. Monies and credits expire one year after the date of the sale.
6. QUICK DROP – as soon as you start a consignment season you are welcome to bring items to the store without an appointment. Saleable items will be added to your account and unsalable items will be donated to charity.
7. It is in our best interest and we pledge to do our very best to safeguard your items. However, J Smith assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to your consigned items.
